

Strengthening The Quality Culture in Vocational Education

Dr. Anang Sutono, CHE.
Assoc. Prof. of STP NHI Bandung

Presented in International Conference, The School of Management, North Minzu University, Yichuan, Ningxia, China

“
Quality does not happen accidentally, but Quality should be precisely managed
With an everlasting passionate leadership.”

- Sutono (2016) -

Quality Culture, Perspectives of

#6 Symbols

#5 Heroes and Stories

#4 Rituals and Traditions

#3 Opinions and Knowledge

#2 Principles and Strategies

#1 Culture (Values and Norms)

Quality Culture in Vocational Education

shared beliefs, values, customs,, ethics, rules, and knowledge systems that are designed, developed, and committed to attain education purposes through Continuous Quality Improvement

Management & Leadership

Student Performance

National Challenges: People Quality of Life

World Class Research & Social Submission

Linked and Matched With Industry Community

Dynamic Innovative Curriculum

Professional Faculty members

Teaching & Learning Experiences

Big Data & Digital Maturity of New Capabilities

Global Standard & Certification: Industry Acceptance

Recommendation

Management & Leadership	Collective design of outward vision, mission, objective, and target, result-oriented planning, dynamic process & monitoring, and advisory
Student	Internationalization of student mobility, immersing local culture, and managing tracer study
Curriculum	Responding to industry needs (linked and matched)
Teaching & Learning	Adapting to new technology ambience
Faculty members	Internationalization of faculty member mobility and enriching capability, adapting and adjusting to professionalism
Research & Social Submission	Strengthening social submission and applied research quality published international-reputable journals

CONSULTANCY | RESEARCH | LEARNING | EATERY

HATUR NUHUN THANK YOU

 www.mandapa.co

 Dr. Anang Sutono, CHE.

 +62 812 2240 2770

 anang@stp-bandung.ac.id

mandapa.consulting@gmail.com